

Top news of the month

This is the third year that we conducted Level Up - our annual awards night to celebrate the spirit of sportsmanship.

We gave out 13 awards for outstanding performance on and off the course. Bringing students, parents and well-wishers together made the evening memorable.

3 tips from us

#CREATING CHAMPIONS

What do we admire about the parents at TSG?

My child's dream matters

These believe in their child's desire to become the best golfer that he/she can be and support them wholeheartedly. They don't want their child to look back with regret at not being given the opportunity to give their dream a real shot.

Lessons for a lifetime

They know that sport is education at its best. This set of parents understand that learning from failure has deeper lessons- ones that last a lifetime and build character like no other.

One team, one language

They know the importance of working together with us as one team. For a student to succeed he has to hear the same language from all quarters to keep him going. When we are all on the same side, the grind, no matter how tough, is more sustainable.

2 quotes from others

"Sportsmanship for me is when a guy gets off the court and you really can't tell whether he won or lost, when he carries himself with pride either way."

Jim Courier

"Nothing goes down slower than a golf handicap."

Bobby Nichols

1 question for you

Do you know how to practice detachment as a young golfer's parent?

Director of Instruction

First and foremost...

This note is dedicated to all the parents of our students. They travelled from different cities and countries for our annual event to join us in making the evening special for every young golfer who is with us to make his or her golfing dream a reality. It didn't matter who won, it was the camaraderie and support that was heartwarming. What made it special this year were the 7 additional awards given to students for grit and determination, resilience, inspiration and work ethic. Performance on the course will come in time but what they put in through the year deserved acknowledgement. We are proud to be mentors and trainers to each child who dreams big and sacrifices a lot for it.
