

Top news of the month

We are proud to announce a collaboration with the renowned American high school, Laurel Springs School.

Students at TSG Academy from grades 6-12 can now also choose to pursue the American system of education and further their dreams of getting into a good US college for undergraduate studies with a golf scholarship.

Laurel Springs School is a premier online flexible K-12 school that enables students to learn at their pace with an enhanced personalized learning experience.

Weatherproof Your Golf Game

Playing in the Wind

In windy conditions, opt for a lower lofted club like a 5-iron to keep the ball flight lower and reduce wind interference. Focus on a smoother, more controlled swing to decrease spin and maintain a straighter ball path, making it less vulnerable to the wind's effects.

Dealing with Rain

In rainy conditions, keep your equipment dry with quality rain gear, waterproof gloves, a bag cover, umbrella, and towel. Wet conditions slow the course, so adjust your club selection and swing speed.

Hot Weather

In hot weather, stay hydrated to maintain focus. Drink water regularly, consider electrolytes, wear breathable clothing and a hat for sun protection. Pace yourself, as heat causes fatigue faster than expected.

1 question

How do you manage your expectations when you know the weather will impact your usual performance?

First and foremost

TSG is a learning environment, be it golf, fitness or academics.

I have always believed that academics at TSG will never be 'alternative schooling' and neither will it be given any less weightage in comparison to the golf.

We have been offering a robust academics program through PROSE EDU with CBSE and NIOS options for our students and now there is one more as we see more Indian origin students from international destinations come to the academy for training.

Our partnership with Laurel Springs School is the beginning.

It's great to see the education options available to young sportsmen today and are happy to be a part of their journey.
