Zion Hills Golf County opens the back 9 for preliminary testing

Zion Hills has opened the back 9 for play on Sundays for its home owners and academy students as a preliminary test before it is opened to the public.

Initial reports are that the greens are looking and feeling very good. The 9 holes are full of challenges with an island green, one of the longest par 3s in the country and also the longest finishing hole.

#CREATING CHAMPIONS

The Champion's Edge

Embrace Discomfort

Real growth happens when you challenge your weaknesses, whether it's technical shots, mental routines, or competitive play. Focus on the aspects of your game that make you uncomfortable. Stepping out of your comfort zone is the key to improvement.

Incorporating Rest and Recreation

Celebrate milestones, such as winning a national event, but don't lose sight of the bigger picture. Remember, each victory is a step forward, not the finish line. Stay hungry for more and use every success as motivation to keep climbing higher.

Stay Focused

Treat practice as sacred. Avoid distractions and save socializing for later. Follow Kobe Bryant's "Mamba Mentality"—relentless focus leads to greatness. Let your dedication shine through.

1 question

Are you fully committed to the process of becoming great, embracing the discipline, focus, and challenges required to separate yourself from the rest?

Note from the Director
With the PGTI season drawing to an end, our players Shaurya Binu and Aryaman Mohan are getting ready to leave for the Asian Tour qualifiers which will be held in Thailand.

Both players are working hard technically physically and mentally to get ready for one of the most gruelling weeks of the year.

Asian tour pre-qualifiers will host around 120 players where only 20 players will advance to the final qualifiers which will be held the following week at a different golf course in Thailand. TSG wishes them the best and hopes that they play to their potential.
