BUILDING TEAM SPIRIT

This month was all about the team. We had 2 amazing learning sessions on using new tools to grow the game of golf in schools, only to find that these tools are great fun for group sessions with adults too! Watch this space as we unveil these tools in the months to come. This is what keeps us at the forefront of golf coaching in the country. The second session was one with our incredibly talented wellness mentor, who taught us all about the 4 Agreements by Don Miguel Ruiz. Both sessions this month brought out the child in each of us and that's what made it all the more meaningful and fun.

GOLF ETIQUETTE & COMMUNITY

3 tips

THE GOLF COURSE IS A SHARED RESPONSIBILITY

When you step onto a golf course, you share the space with every player. Caring for it is not just about rules, it is about being mindful of your impact. Repairing divots, fixing ball marks, and keeping it clean show respect for the game and those who follow. It preserves the beauty and integrity of golf for the future.

FOSTERING FRIENDSHIPS THROUGH GOLF

Golf is not just about the scorecard, it is about the connections you build. The course brings people together to share stories and moments. Whether over a birdie or a bogey, these conversations create community. The real game is played between people, not just holes.

THE ART OF HANDSHAKES AND GESTURES

In golf, the little things matter. A handshake or a simple "well played" goes beyond sportsmanship and respects each other's effort. These gestures build camaraderie and make the game a shared experience. It is about the journey together, not just the result.

2 quotes

"Golf is a game of respect—respect for the course, the players, and the traditions that bring us together."

- Arnold Palmer

"Golf is a good walk spoiled, but it's the camaraderie on the course that makes it worthwhile."

- Mark Twain

1 question

How can we build a more inclusive and respectful golfing community?

Tarun Sardesai
Director of Golf Instruction

First and foremost

It's heartening to see the TSG team of experts growing. As we move into newer territories and grow the game we hope the number of junior golfers in the country grows too. Today the number of registered junior golfers is only 2500 - a number I am sure you are as surprised by as I am. This gives us the impetus and the confidence that we are on the right path as we build the roadmap from grassroots to high performance.

Our Train the Trainer program is coming together well and we are looking forward to building the next generation of coaches and mentors which hands on learning in a structured environment.

Every Junior Development Program run by TSG involves monthly Intensive Sessions with a visiting High Performance Coach from our Zion Hills Golf County center. For 2+ years, these sessions have been conducted at Clover Greens. Hear it from the Coach: “The Intensive Training Day gives intermediate and advanced juniors a glimpse of a day at the High Performance Centre. The session includes structured warm up, skill work in long and short game, pressure drills, and on course play. It helps young golfers learn to practice with purpose and develop a high performance mindset.”

KOLKATA

Our HPC coaches continue to lead impactful coach development sessions and assessments, shaping a team of confident, capable mentors. Their guidance is helping coaches grow not just in technical knowledge, but in the ability to inspire and bring out the best in every junior.

Juniors are steadily improving fundamentals, practice habits, and confidence. Advanced players are sharpening skills in iron play, wedges, chipping, and putting, while learning to make smarter decisions on the course.

OOTY

At the Ooty Gymkhana Golf Club, TSG is expanding golf by introducing the sport to students from leading boarding schools in Ooty, with strong support from the club committee.

The first batch from The Laidlaw Memorial School and Junior College will begin sessions on 7 March, with students from Standards 6 to 10 training regularly under TSG certified coach Aaseem, helping build a strong junior golf culture in Ooty.

Begur School students now have the opportunity to train at the Karnataka Golf Association through the initiative of Mr. Praveen Singhvi, with TSG Coach Hemanth guiding them throughout the journey. The students enjoy fantastic range sessions and valuable exposure to a professional golf environment.

Every Tuesday, six students attend on a rotational basis, giving each of them the chance to learn, grow, and experience the game beyond the school grounds.

"No matter your level, TSG's approach is never one size fits all. They assess your body and swing, customize everything with smart drills and tech, and even use simple tools to fine tune your game. The Zion facility has everything in one place, and I've already seen a big difference in just three months. Highly recommend Tarun and TSG."
